He thought he had it made. Get home from class, fire up some video games, and wait for his girlfriend Reese to get off work so they could have a little fun. The only problem? Reese has been working late a lot more than usual, and he's starting to suspect his girlfriend is doing a lot more than getting in some overtime. Like having fun with the "harmless" guys she works with who are always hitting on her. He hates it.

So why is he so turned on by that idea?

Reese thought it was all innocent fun. A dare on a slow night at work that turned into so much more when she found herself getting really turned on at the idea of getting a little naughty with a man who wasn't her boyfriend. She knows it's wrong. She knows she should resist. She's surprised at how hot she gets when she feels their eyes running all over her. She wants more, but she knows her boyfriend wouldn't ever approve.

Then she finds out all about his new obsession: watching her with another man!

Angela is Reese's dorm roommate. The classic sexpot in geek's clothing, she always seemed to hate Reese's boyfriend. Only it turns out there's a thin line between lust and hate as she starts hinting at some of Reese's extracurricular activities and trying to come between them even as Reese moves towards the arms of another man.

Just another sexy complication to an already complicated scenario as the hot young couple tries to feel out new boundaries for their relationship!

Swapping. Sharing. Cheating. The truth is all in the eye of the beholder, and there will be more than a few twists and turns as the sexy young couple redefines what it is to be faithful to one another while giving into the deliciously sinful temptation that is welcoming new lovers, guy or girl, into their relationship!
