A normal girl embarking on her new journey to college. But college cost a ton with the high tuition fees and getting all then cool clothes, she just could not manage to pay the high prices for apartments. So left with no choice she had to take the last option which was living with a roommate to help finance the living in fees. The unexpected happened and she was left in complete shock when her roommate turned out to be a boy instead of a girl. And what's worse was he was no ordinary boy. He was the bad boy of the college and daringly handsome.

So when these two different worlds collide what will be the outcome.

Read Roomies to find out and be a part of their amazing adventure together.
